Organizations requesting accreditation should briefly describe their recent activities and relevant experience in safeguarding intangible cultural heritage, including those demonstrating the capacities of the organization to provide advisory services to the Committee. Relevant documentation may be submitted, if necessary, under section 8.c below.

Not to exceed 550 words; do not attach additional information

Since 1990, the National Union of Folk-Art Masters of Ukraine has worked in the sphere of researching, preserving, safeguarding and developing art crafts of Ukraine. The organization unites craftsmen and craftswomen, folk-art masters, managers in traditional arts and crafts, researchers from all over Ukraine, having its centers in all regions, except 2-3, with membership of 1618 persons. The Union organizes workshops on local and national level, conferences and meetings to raise awareness on the ICH, role of crafts and traditional arts. In 2020, in collaboration with the Regional Centre for the Safeguarding of Intangible Cultural Heritage in South-Eastern Europe under the auspices of UNESCO, the Development Centre "Democracy through Culture", the National Academy of Arts of Ukraine and the Odesa Regional Centre for Ukrainian Culture, the NSMNMU has organized and carried out the workshop "Community-based inventorying on local and national level".

The Union enables the informal education in folk arts and crafts for young people and children in cities as in villages, paying attention to such kinds of crafts which are at risk of disappearing. The Union organizes regular craft forums where masters of various ages share their experience. The NSMNMU has established the scholarship, prizes, awards and certificates for experienced and young masters; the regional centers of the Union conduct work in research, inventorying and youth education. The Union supports ICH elements inscribed on the Representative List of UNESCO, that is, "Petrykivka decorative painting as a phenomenon of the Ukrainian ornament folk art" and "Tradition of Kosiv painted ceramics", as well as ICH presentations inscribed on the National register of the ICH of Ukraine.

The Union conducts regularly masterclasses, open workshops for sharing knowledge and skills, raising awareness in crafts and traditional technologies which are endangered, examines these cases documenting them. The Union carries out active educational activities, particularly, through creative contests and exhibitions, including international. A good example could be the international exhibition "The safeguarding of traditional crafts and arts as a factor for peace" organized in collaboration with the Development Centre "Democracy through Culture", Ministry of Culture of Columbia, the National Academy of Arts of Ukraine.

6.d. Description of the organization's competence and expertise

Myroslava Shevchenko, event manager, art historian, graphic artist, ceramist

7. The organization's experiences in cooperating with communities, groups and intangible cultural heritage practitioners

The Committee will evaluate whether NGOs requesting accreditation 'cooperate in a spirit of mutual respect with communities, groups and, where appropriate, individuals that create, practise and transmit intangible cultural heritage' (Criterion D). Please briefly describe such experiences here.

Not to exceed 350 words; do not attach additional information

The National Union of Folk-Art Masters of Ukraine deals directly with local communities, groups and individuals, professionals united in associations and separate artists. Recognizing the importance and weight of local communities, groups and individuals for ICH safeguarding, the NSMNMU maintains close contacts with different communities and groups residing in Ukraine or out. Above 9000 craftsmen, united in communities interacts within the frames of the National Union. The main directions of the NSMNMU's interaction with communities and groups are: research, examination and promotion of their heritage; realization of joint projects and exhibitions; support of grassroot initiatives.

The National Union of Folk-Art Masters of Ukraine is a platform providing opportunities to the members of a wide community of craftsmen and craftswomen for realizing joint projects and initiatives directed at local needs. Besides, it is very important promotional and information facilities for all folk artists and ICH bearers living in Ukraine, irrespective of their origin, age, sex, social background.
