The competence of the paguyuban associations of kris enthusiasts which are members of SNKI is that they have studied kris intangible cultural heritage mostly through informal training in discussion among themselves, and by reading books and magazines about kris. Many of them are collectors of kris. Some are kris master-craftsmen (empu), or makers of the accessories of the kris. The universities which teach kris culture and museums possess more scientific knowledge of kris, and are making a concerted effort to transmit kris culture to younger generations.

Activities of SNKI, 2006 – 2011

1. SNKI was declared in Yogyakarta on 12th March 2006 at the 2nd National Kris Seminar at Vredeborg Fort Museum in Yogyakarta.
2. Subsequently Articles of Association and By-Laws were drawn up and adopted in April 2006.
3. The Board of Executive Management for 2006 – 2011 was established by decision No. 01/V/SNKI/2006 dated 2nd May 2006 and held regular meetings.
4. The Secretary-General of SNKI, assisted by the members of the Board of Executive Management, has regularly guided and assisted paguyuban associations of kris enthusiasts and kris craftspersons in many areas. 6. SNKI participated in a Seminar on Kris in the Scientific Perspective, organized by the Centre for Research and Development of Culture at STSI Surakarta (Arts University) in 2010. The seminar resulted in publication of a book entitled Kris in the Scientific Perspective, containing essays by some 12 experts, including from SNKI. This book fulfills a desire by community members to develop "krisology" as a science.
7. SNKI participated in an exhibition and seminar entitled "Keris for the World" at the National Gallery, Jakarta, 3rd-8th June 2010. This event was opened by the (then) Minister for Culture and Tourism, and succeeded in increasing public and media awareness of kris intangible cultural heritage.

8. SNKI has supported the development of a kris studies curriculum at STSI (now ISI) arts university in Surakarta and also informal training in kris intangible cultural heritage at traditional schools of kris culture (sanggar). This has helped to strengthen transmission of kris cultural heritage, particularly to the younger generation.
9. From 2006-2010 SNKI participated in many exhibitions and seminars on kris, in Jakarta and on other places all over Indonesia.

The Committee will evaluate whether NGOs requesting accreditation 'cooperate in a spirit of mutual respect with communities, groups and, where appropriate, individuals that create, maintain and transmit intangible cultural heritage' (Criterion D). Please briefly describe such experiences here.

Not to exceed 350 words; do not attach additional information

SNKI was established as part of an Action Plan to safeguard kris cultural heritage, by the collective desire of 15 paguyuban associations of kris enthusiasts, educational institutions teaching kris cultural heritage, and museums exhibiting kris from communities from all over Java, Bali and Nusa Tenggara Barat Provinces, who had gathered together in a spirit of friendship and mutual respect to attend the 2nd National Kris Seminar. The Declaration of SNKI was witnessed and facilitated by relevant government officials from the (then) Department of Culture and Tourism, on 12th March 2006 in Vredeborg Fort (Museum) in Yogyakarta. Since its founding, SNKI has tried to carry out the safeguarding activities of kris cultural heritage as suggested by kris community members, as reflected in the Action Plan, and has always involved these paguyuban associations of kris enthusiasts in all activities for safeguarding kris intangible cultural heritage.

Since that time, through ongoing interaction with kris community members all over Indonesia, SNKI has grown and developed, and now includes some 71 paguyuban associations of kris enthusiasts, educational institutions dealing with kris, museums exhibiting kris, and social networks of kris enthusiasts (See documentation in Section 8.a attached). SNKI has also developed networking with paguyuban associations and kris enthusiasts beyond Java, Bali and Nusa Tenggara Barat, namely from Sumatra, Kalimantan and Sulawesi islands. Interaction with kris enthusiasts has recently developed through social networks via mobile phone communication. These social networks were officially made members of SNKI and participated actively in the 1st SNKI Congress in Surakarta in April 2011.

Since its inception, SNKI has interacted continuously with all these communities related to kris cultural heritage on an ongoing basis, by holding regular meetings, seminars, exhibitions, and by regular communication, as described in Section 6.c above.
